Acceptable Use Policy

Version 1.0. Effective from 7 October 2026. taxaudit.ng

1. You may

- Keep and check records for your own business, or for clients who have engaged your practice.
- Invite people who need to work on those records.

2. You may not

- Upload records you aren't entitled to handle, or anything unlawful.
- Use TaxAudit to create false records or to mislead the tax authorities.
- Try to access other businesses' data, test our security without following our Responsible Disclosure Policy, or overload the service.
- Share your account or resell the service without our agreement.

We may suspend accounts that break this policy; see our Terms of Service.
